

Title IX Notice of Nondiscrimination

Georgia State University does not discriminate on the basis of sex in its education programs and activities and prohibits such discrimination by students, faculty and staff. Nondiscrimination on the basis of sex is mandated by Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972 (20 U.S.C. §§ 1681 et seq.) and the corresponding implementation regulations (34 C.F.R. Part 106).

Title IX prohibits sex discrimination. Sex discrimination constitutes sexual misconduct and includes both sexual harassment and sexual violence. At Georgia State University, the term "sexual misconduct" encompasses sexual harassment, sexual exploitation, non-consensual sexual contact, non-consensual sexual intercourse, dating violence, domestic violence, and stalking.

DID YOU KNOW sexual misconduct is any kind of unwanted sexual contact including sexual contact with someone who is unable to give legal consent due to intoxication or being underage?

WOULD IT SURPRISE YOU TO LEARN THAT hooking up with your girl or boyfriend while drunk, posting/sharing revealing photos of someone without their consent, or showing/sending revealing photos to someone who does not want to see them can all constitute sexual misconduct?

Reporting Sex Discrimination/Misconduct

Sex discrimination including sexual misconduct should be immediately reported to a Georgia State University Title IX Coordinator. Sexual misconduct by University students, faculty or staff should be immediately reported to one of the University's designated Title IX Coordinators as set forth below.
