DIVERSITY is the KEY to POSSIBILITIES

A Diverse Campus Culture ...
It's who we are and what we value

DIVERSITY DEFINED

The Georgia State University Diversity Strategic Plan broadens the historic definition of diversity beyond those identities that are federally protected (race, color, religion, national origin, sex, age, veteran status and disability) to include sexual orientation, gender identity expression and socioeconomic class.

Diversity encompasses the representation, inclusion and engagement of these populations and protects the free exchange of divergent opinions within the campus community.

Georgia State University's University Strategic Plan (USP) and Diversity Strategic Plan (DSP) set forth a course of action that advances the University into the ranks of great public research universities. This requires bold and innovative thinking that utilizes our diversity. We must become leaders in leveraging every aspect of campus diversity among our constituent groups of students, faculty and staff.

"When you learn something from people, or from a culture, you accept it as a gift, and it is your lifelong commitment to preserve it and build on it."
— Yo Yo Ma

OUR GOALS

1 To promote diversity and inclusion at Georgia State University. The Office of Diversity Education Planning (ODEP) coordinates the implementation of Georgia State University's Diversity Strategic Plan. Specifically, it supports university leadership in establishing, monitoring and assessing diversity programs, projects and initiatives related to students, faculty and staff.

2 To engage strategic thinking necessary to implement the Diversity Strategic Plan. The Office of Diversity Education Planning (ODEP) collaborates with others to identify metrics needed to achieve the goals of the Diversity Strategic Plan (DSP).

3 To provide diversity awareness and inclusiveness training to the university community. Through various formats of personal and interpersonal training, the Office of Diversity Education Planning (ODEP) identifies a broad range of educational approaches in exploring workplace topics which include gender, race and cultural relations, religion, sexual orientation, generational difference and others.

OUR MISSION

The Office of Diversity Education Planning (ODEP) engages students, faculty and staff as well as the Atlanta metropolitan community in the educational process of developing, implementing and assessing programs and projects related to the scope of diversity and inclusion.
